Charter South Students Support United Way

The students at ASPIRA South Charter School continue to set examples of leadership and community service, raising funds for United Way. The United Way (UW) is an agency that that raises funds for human service & community needs, especially during times of disaster. ASPIRA of Florida receives funding from UW of Miami-Dade and Broward counties for its ASPIRA Club Program. The ASPIRA program is design to foster the social advancement of youth through the pursuit of an individualize education plan. This goal is achieve through the ASPIRA Club Process, which is a peer leadership model for High School Graduation & College Access.

New School Design receives student, parent and staff approval

ASPIRA South Charter was awarded a grade of "A"; and achieved Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) under the No Child Left Behind Act for two consecutive years. In addition, Charter South students, teachers and parents are prototype exemplary Title I Schools. Its new Principal Jason Trinidad has expressed words of accolade for students, parents and staff.

The Architect Rolando Llanes from CIVICA architectural firm has introduced the new design and landscaping plans to staff and students with great reviews and is awaiting start-up. The construction plans for ASPIRA South will house a new K-8 Charter School facility to be built in two phases. The first phase will be to renovate the existing Falcon Inn into new classrooms, with a connecting skywalk/elevator and site work (parking lot and green areas). The adjacent pictorial renderings illustrate the new designs.
